Grinding Fecal Samples with a Cyclone Sample Mill

Before grinding, chop sample into small pieces to avoid clogging the grinder. If grinding cattle samples, this step is not necessary.

Place the receiving jar below the chute. Make sure all clamps are tight and that the seal around the receiving cup is secure and tight.

Slowly place sample pieces in top of chute.

After the entire sample has been ground, transfer it from the receiving cup to a coin envelope.