Storing Samples

1. Label each sample with location, date, sample number, and type.
2. Label box with date and other important information.
3. Place samples of similar type and dates in box for storage.